

THE FIRST COUNTY SCHOOL FAIR HELD IN HOPKINS COUNTY

Was Unbounded Success---The Majority of The Schools in the County Were Represented and Hundreds of School Children Were Present

The first County School Fair ever held in this county took place in Madisonville last Friday and practically every school in the county was well represented. It is estimated there were 2,000 school children and teachers in the parade and about 5,000 including all visitors in Madisonville on this occasion. The parade was formed at the West Broadway building and marched two abreast to Main street and turned north going down the east side of main with banner flying and badges fluttering in the wind. They marched the entire length of Main street returning on the west side and the head of the column had made the round and reached the court house before the rear left West Broadway thus making the parade over a mile in length. Such a gathering was never before seen in Madisonville and it doubtless marks a new era along educational lines in this county. The amount of enthusiasm displayed by both teachers and pupils in preparing for this school fair was equal to that evidenced by the preparations for the school fair held in Earlinton in Dec. 1913, which was the first school fair ever held in the county. Prof. C. E. Dudley principal and Paul M. Moore chairman of the Board of Education were wholly responsible for the first school fair, and their lead was handsomely followed up this year when the county fair was held in Madisonville. After the parade Friday the crowd assembled in the court house square and were addressed by the Hon. D. H. Kincheloe who said, among other things that the crowd before him thoroughly convinced him that "Roosevelt's theory of race suicide was smashed into smithereens." In the afternoon the West Broadway building was thrown open to the public, where the exhibits of the different schools were displayed. The crowd at this building was so dense it was almost impossible to view the display with any degree of satisfaction until late in the afternoon. The display of the various schools was indeed commendable and proved that the teachers and pupils had put forth their best efforts in anticipation of this fair. County Sup't. Lem Ray, deserves great credit for the success of the fair and was ably seconded by the various teachers of the town and country schools. The benefit of this gathering to the cause of education in this county should be lasting, as every school represented went back home filled with a greater zeal for the cause and a determination to get better results in the future. Earlinton school carried off one-fifth of the prizes offered, two of these being general prizes, one of which was the Library prize of 25 volumes, given for the greatest number in attendance based on mileage and the other Domestic Science Display, $3.00 cash.

Following is a list of grades and names of pupils receiving prizes from the Earlinton school:

Maj. F. B. Harris Greatly Honored

New honors worthily bestowed have come to Maj. F. B. Harris, a well known and highly respected citizen of Madisonville. His title hereafter is to be General Harris, commander of the Second Brigade, Confederate Veterans of Kentucky, which embraces all the territory of the State west of and including Owensboro and Russellville.

The honors that have come to Major Harris have not been bestowed as a matter of favoritism, but because they have been justly earned and now in his older days he finds himself the recipient of honors—that while greatly prized, in no way turn the head upon which has been placed the wreath of laurel that so fittingly adorns the one on whom and in whom honors have come as a reward for duty well performed.

Notice to the Public

I am a candidate in the Great Perry Pony contest now being conducted by the following business men of Madisonville. Coffman & Battle Drug store, F. N. Fugate Jeweler & Millinery, Ruby Lumber Co., J. B. Armstrong Taylor, Printers & Garrick Theatre, R. E. Moore Hardware, Exchange Roller Mills, The Grand Leader dry goods, Pritchett Brothers Grocery and Heltley & Thomas meat market, and as I am a little country school girl and have no opportunity to make a personal canvass, I take this method of soliciting your vote when you trade at any of the above places. Votes are issued at the rate of 100 for $1.00 or one vote for each cent. Please pay your coupons for me or write my name on them and deposit them in one of the ballot boxes in Madisonville. I certainly will appreciate anything you may do for me in this contest.

Yours truly,
Ruth Barron, Nebo, Ky.

Chambertain's Tablets

This is a medicine intended especially for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. It is acting with much success and rapidly gaining in favor and popularity obtainable everywhere.

A CHILD HATES OIL CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if Cross, Sick, Feverish, Constipated

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on the prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Farm Demonstration Work

The Boy's corn and pig show was held in connection with the school fair on Friday, Nov. 12.

The winners of the corn club were:

Adie Ashby, Anton, best ten ears yellow dent.

Aubrey Williams, Richland, best ten ears white dent.

Aubrey Williams, Richland, best ear of corn in the show.

William Owen Stinnett, best pure bred pig.

Aubrey Williams, best pig of any breeding.

The boys' corn and pig show of this year is just the beginning. Next year we expect to fill the court house yard with pigs and the school building with corn.

The boy of today is the man of tomorrow, and when the boy can be interested in growing and breeding better live stock, seed corn and other farm products, the farm and the country as a whole will be a better place to live tomorrow than it is today.

Let the father of every boy in Hopkins county interest the boy better farming and instead of the "back to the farm movement" make it a "day at home movement." G. S. HOLLINGSWORTH.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

WHEELS AND COMMUNITIES

When a spoke in a wheel is broken that wheel is weakened and only of partial or slight value to the rest of the vehicle. The vehicle itself is of no greater value than its weakest spot, the broken wheel. Its usefulness will not be restored until the wheel is repaired and placed on a par with the other wheels. Then it is again ready to assume its proper functions in the scheme of life.

And as it is with the wheel and the wagon, so it is with the citizen and the community. The latter is only as strong as the loyalty of the former. The community will advance only in accordance with the loyalty and progressiveness of its people.

The man who forgets his home merchants and sends his money to outside sources is the broken wheel of his own community. He is the weak spot that retards the growth of all, that produces commercial stagnation, that creates local hard times and reduces the community that shelters him and the people who feed him to the level of a hand to mouth existence.

We don't want any broken wheels in this community; we don't want any useless vehicles, or commercial disintegration, or hand to mouth existence; we don't want any poverty or distress.

But we do want prosperity, and progressiveness, and happiness and contentment, and full larders and dinner pails, and we can have them if each one of us will do our duty to the town in which we live, and trade with home people, and keep our own money in our own community.

We want to "keep prosperity in this town," and we can only do it by "trading where we live."

Personally, we intend to practice what we preach in this respect, for the good of the community, for your good, and for our own good, and we would dearly love to see you trailing right along by our side, and we are quite expecting to see you doing it because we don't think we are one whit more loyal to this town than you are.

Come along, brother. When we all pull in the same harness we make a mighty strong team.

Farmers' Institute Begins Wednesday

Under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture of Kentucky; Extension Department of the College of Agriculture, and the United States Department of Agriculture, a farmers' institute will be held at the court house at Madisonville this week, beginning Wednesday morning and continuing until Thursday afternoon. These institutes are being held in each county in the State and farmers who are interested in better farming methods and topics of general interest to them are being greatly benefited by attending these institutes.

E. C. Martindale, of Wilkinson, Ind., D. S. Kelsey, of West Hartford, Conn., and Miss Margaret Pennick, of Chardon, Iowa, are among the speakers from other points who will discuss important subjects of general interest to the farmer. Other speakers will be present and the two days' meeting should be very interesting and instructive. Every farmer in the county who can possibly do so should attend.

Woods Full of Them

Monday was the first day quail could be legitimately killed and the weather being ideal the woods were full of hunters. A large number of hunting licenses have been issued by Casher Phillips at the Earlinton Bank. One local hunter, it is reported, bagged 11 rabbits and 15 quail the first day.

CHRISTIAN SUNDAY SCHOOL

Good Rainy-Day Crowd in Attendance Last Sunday

COMMITTEE FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Despite the steady downpour through the early morning hours a splendid rainy day crowd was in attendance at the Christian Sunday School on last Sunday. The team of workers captained by Mr. H. D. Coward threw themselves into the attendance contest with a vim and but for the very unfavorable weather conditions would have taken lead in the contest.

For next Sunday Nov., 21st., the following compose the workers committee: Mrs. S. E. Stevens, chairman, Mrs. Ernest Brown, Misses Emma Vison, Eleanor Arnold and Margaret Shaw, Messrs Ed Rule, Crael Wyatt, Dewey Walker, Redford Cloyd, Ernest Eastwood and Dillman Rich.

STOMACH ACTS FINE! NO INDIGESTION, GAS HEARTBURN, ACIDITY

"Pape's Diapepsin" Fixes Sick, Sour, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain, unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if any one should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and indigestion food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

At Christian Church

The congregation of the Christian Church are planning a great day Dec. 5, when their new pastor, Howard J. Brazelton, will take charge of the work.

On this day the Sunday School will have their rally and homecoming, day when everybody that is a member of the Church or Sunday School are expected to be in their places.

A most excellent program has been arranged and the public is cordially invited to attend. — Russellville News Democrat.

"I BOUGHT A BUNCH OF PIGS"

"Got the biggest piece of news yet," puffed Dave Thurmsh as he rode up to the old blacksmith shop at Ash-bottom.

"Well give it to us, Dave."

"John Hughes's goin' to run for school trustee."

"No, you're jokin', Dave. John, he's too busy a farmer to bother with bein' school trustee, besides he hasn't got any kin folks teachin' school that I ever heard of."

"That may be so, but I got word about it mighty straight. His wife and mine he was goin' to run an' I reckon that's just about as straight as anybody could get anything. Here he comes now on his ol' bay mare, an'
you can ask him for yourselves."

When the tall, fine-looking man had given the blacksmith some instructions concerning the making of a doubletree, he turned to the men and said:

"I'll bet anything Dave has told you is out for the office of school trustee for Ashbottom Sub-district."

"Yes, he said you were goin' to run, but we couldn't hardly believe it," answered one of the neighbors.

"Why not?"

"Well, because mighty few men ever wanted the trouble and bother of wor-rin' with a young teacher an' a lot of children. Besides there ain't a chance in it an' plenty of hard work if the man does his duty."

The candidate sat down on the frame of the grindstone under the big tree and quietly crossed his legs. For a time he was silent with an odd, bitter smile on his face. At length he laughed and said:

"Any one of you men would fight if anybody told you that you really didn't love your children, wouldn't you?"

The men about him nodded their assent and he hurried on.

"You do love 'em; I know you; do because I love mine, too. But heya, there's ever so many ways of lovin' children an' it's only lately that I've seen a new way to love 'em. My children have been goin' to school out at the little school house for five years an' I hardly ever gave 'em a thought.
I voted for any ol' galoot that wanted to be trustee just like you have."

"What made you swap around in your ideas?" asked one of the men.

"Feedin' hogs an' keepin' my eyes open."

"Don't you joke with us, John, we want to know."

"I have already told you, but I haven't told you the whole story just as it happened to me. You fellows recollect I bought a big bunch of pigs just about the time school opened.
Well they were as nice a bunch as I ever saw, so I wanted 'em to be fed right. My regular hand, ol' Si, was sick, so I had to hire a new man to do the feedin'. While I was lookin' around I put the hogs in that clover field down next the school house so they'd have grassin' enough an' plenty of water."

"I reckon you boys think I'm takin' a long time to tell you the story, but I believe it'll change your ideas about the school like it did mine. Well, the day I put the hogs in on the clover a nice lookin' youngster about 18 years old come over to hire to me an' feed the hogs. I talked with him an' he was bright all right, but he never had fed hogs. He had worked on a farm an' he had a pretty good education, an' I wanted to hire him, but you see I was afraid to risk feedin' a lot of corn to pigs that stood me five hundred dollars in hard money."

"I don't blame you," remarked one of the men, "but how did that make you decide you wanted to be trustee?"

"I'm comin' to that now. After the young man had left an' I'd finished feedin' the pigs, I went over to the school house as I was so close by.
When I went in the door I reckon I was still thinkin' about the pigs an'
the young man I was afraid to hire.
At any rate I looked over the room.
My children and your children goin' to school to a mite of a sweet little girl of 18. I'd known her nearly all her life an' I was certain this was the first school she'd ever taught. I knew she's only finished goin' to school herself last year."

"For a minute I felt like a fool because I knew I'd been afraid to trust the feedin' of my hogs to a youngster without experience an' yet here were four of my own children goin' to school to an 18-year-old little girl without any experience."

"That's the reason I told you I was learnin' to love my children a new way, an' that's the reason I'm goin' to take time to be trustee so I can see that my children an' your children get a fair square deal from now on."

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

Noted Negro Teacher and Leader Dead

Tuskegee, Ala., Nov. 14.—Booker T. Washington, foremost teacher and leader of the negro race, died early today at his home near the Tuskegee Institute, of which he was founder and president. Hardening of the arteries following a nervous breakdown caused death four hours after Dr. Washington arrived from New York.

Altho he had been in failing health for several months, the negro leader's condition became serious only last week while he was in the East. He then realized the end was near, but was determined to make the long trip South. He had said often:
"I was born in the South, have lived all my life in the South and expect to die and be buried in the South."

War by The Button

Thomas A. Edison is quoted as saying: "The day of universal peace is a long way off. There has got to be a great deal more war and it is going to be more destructive every year. Pretty soon we can be mowing men down by the millions almost by pressing a button." Mr. Edison, however, does not look for electricity to play such an important part, but says: "It's going to be a struggle of explosives." Ammunition is America's great need and Mr. Edison thinks we should have ammunition factories capable of producing daily twice as much as whole of Europe combined.

Cures Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cure.
The worst case, no matter how long standing

WARNS NATIONAL BANKS ON USURY

Comptroller Williams Calls Attention to Oath of Each Director

Washington, Nov. 13.—Comptroller of the Currency Williams has sent a circular letter to all national banks calling attention to the oath each director signs when he assumes office not to permit the banks to violate the national bank act and pointing out particularly that part of the act which provides that a national bank may receive interest on its loans "at the rate allowed by the laws of the state, territory or district where the bank is located, and no more."

"This office," says the letter, "regrets to report that the sworn statement of condition of a great many national banks show that section 3608, United States revised statutes, against usury, has been grossly violated by these banks."

"You are respectfully advised and admonished that this provision of the national bank act should be faithfully observed by all national banks, their officers and directors, in accordance with the solemn oaths taken by directors."

"You are requested to read this letter at the next meeting of your board of directors and to have it inscribed upon the minutes and to send a copy of this letter to every member of your board who may not be present at such meeting, with the request that he promptly acknowledge receipt to you."

Assessment of L. & N. Property in Kentucky Made—Figure $3,000,000 Increase Over Last Year

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 15.—The State Board of Valuation and Assessment assessed the Louisville and Nashville total capital, which includes both the assessment of its tangible property made by the Railroad Commission and its franchise value, at $75,000,000, an increase of $3,000,000.

Start a Saloon in Your Own Home

As most compensation laws specifically provide that no compensation shall be paid to those who are injured while under the influence of intoxicants, the Ben Franklin Mutual Casualty Insurance Company, of Chicago, is circulating a bulletin containing the following clever suggestion, as first issued by the Illinois Steel Company. We can all profit by the blunt truths the bulletin sets forth:

"Start a saloon in your own home. Be the only customer (you'll have no license to pay). Go to your wife and give her two dollars to buy a gallon of whiskey, and remember there are sixty-nine drinks in a gallon. Buy your drinks from no one but your wife, and by the time that the first gallon is gone she will have eight dollars to put in to the bank and two dollars to
